

Shaping a vision

Consider the following questions:

1. What is the best I can imagine for myself as an educator by the end of this program?
2. What is the best I can imagine for myself as a learner by the end of this program?
3. If I can achieve my best, what will be different for me? What will be different for my students? What will remain the same?
4. If I achieve my vision, what will I be able to do better than I can now?
5. What do I hope others will notice about me at the end of this program?
6. How might my future change if I make a commitment to this journey?

Create an image of the future

Write a description of yourself in the future, when you have completed this program. Include details about your understanding of students, your ability to meet diverse learning needs, your attitude to your work, your qualities as an educator, your relationship with others, etc.
